TOOLBOX TALK #15

Vital GRP

Security on Site

Prepare: Quiet location? No distractions? Talk aids ready?

Reason: Site security is essential for the protection of people and materials.

Why: Unauthorized persons will probably not be aware of the hazards associated with construction sites.

Outline: This talk will cover the hazards to unauthorized visitors and ways of preventing unauthorized access.

What the law says

- Under the law, trespassers have a right to expect not to be put at right if they enter a construction site, particularly children who are less aware of danger.
- On larger sites the CDM Regulations place a specific duty on the main contractor to ensure that unauthorized persons do not gain access to the site.

Q: Why should you prevent unauthorized access to the site?

Some risks to the Unwary

- Children often find that construction sites are exciting places to play – ensure they cannot gain access after normal working hours.
- Power tools, plant and equipment may be too tempting if not disabled or locked away, they could be stolen or cause injury to the inexperienced.
- Hazardous substances which you may be familiar with and use daily may cause serious injury to unauthorized persons; lock them away when not in use.

Remove Temptation

- Ensure that an effective system of access control is operated.
- Remove ladders from scaffolds or securely board up the lower rungs to prevent access at the end of each working day.

NOTES

Security on Site

Check that the perimeter hoarding or fencing is intact and is to a standard which does not encourage unauthorized entry.

- Remove keys from plant and equipment when not in use.
- Remove from view and secure any tools, equipment and materials which might tempt thieves onto the site after normal working hours.
- Q. How can you prevent the theft of tools, equipment and materials?
- Q: How can you remove the temptation for children to play on scaffold and in excavations?

Dealing with trespassers

- Ask suspected trespassers who they wish to see and if necessary, escort them to site security. If they are genuine visitors, they will not mind being challenged.
- Ensure that trespassing children are escorted off the site immediately.
- Do not put yourself in a position where you could be accused of assault.
